

Research Activity Report
Supported by JSPS Program for Leading Graduate Schools
“Leading Graduate Program in Primatology and Wildlife Science”

2014. 5, 27

Affiliation/Position	Primate Research Institute , Kyoto University /L1
Name	Toda Kazuya

1. Country/location of visit
DRC, Kinshasa, Basankus, Lomako
2. Research project
Workshop for conservation of wild apes
3. Date (departing from/returning to Japan)
2014. 4. 4 – 2014. 4. 20 (17days)
4. Main host researcher and affiliation
Jef Dupain, AWF
5. Progress and results of your research/activity (You can attach extra pages if needed)
Please insert one or more pictures (to be publicly released). Below each picture, please provide a brief description.
Because I want to be engaged in activities of international NGO for conservation of wild animals, participation in the workshop is good opportunity to study the NGO activity. During this workshop, I participated in a conference hold by AWF for conservation of wild apes, and practice using 'cyber tracker'. I got a chance to communicate with experts of conservation in various country and organization and learned about activities and various problems that NGO worker are confronted. I felt that French is the most important to work in Africa. I need to learn French as soon as possible. I believe that this experience is helpful for my study at Wamba, and inspire me to reconsider conservation.

Research Activity Report
Supported by JSPS Program for Leading Graduate Schools
“Leading Graduate Program in Primatology and Wildlife Science”

In Kinshasa, this is King size hotel, where the conference of conservation for apes was held.

Basankus Airpot

Research Activity Report
Supported by JSPS Program for Leading Graduate Schools
“Leading Graduate Program in Primatology and Wildlife Science”

Camp of AWF in Basankus

Congo River in early morning

Research Activity Report
Supported by JSPS Program for Leading Graduate Schools
“Leading Graduate Program in Primatology and Wildlife Science”

A view from canoe

Lomako Reserve

Research Activity Report
Supported by JSPS Program for Leading Graduate Schools
“Leading Graduate Program in Primatology and Wildlife Science”

Me and Jef.

An Expert of conservation in Cameroon and Police for arresting poacher

People living in Yakokara village

Research Activity Report
Supported by JSPS Program for Leading Graduate Schools
“Leading Graduate Program in Primatology and Wildlife Science”

Forest in Lomako

6. Others